JOSEPH AND THE AMAZING TECHNICOLOUR DREAMCOAT
PRODUCTION NOTES

This production started life during 2002 when the Joseph CD was played during church building repair and redecoration days. Sophie and Kimberley are to blame for suggesting that we should put on a performance of the show ourselves, which set the ball rolling.

It was not until rehearsals started that we realised the enormity of the task ahead. Even the songs we thought we knew proved to be trickier than anticipated.

However 6 months down the line all the cast members have enjoyed the experience of putting on what, for most, is their first major production. The dedication to turn up week after week for 26 weeks means that enjoyment and fun are essential.

A special thank you is due to several people, without whose help and support things would have been difficult, if not impossible.

We were so relieved and pleased when William agreed to take over the musical reigns. Not only has he utilised his own amazing talents but he has also brought along friends to form our show band for fabulous live music throughout.

Our main wardrobe mistress and costume designer is Lynne Porter. 30 different costumes and numerous props take a considerable amount of effort and dedication to the cause. Ably assisted by Betty and Anne the super results will be there for all to see.

Our backing choir consists of a very patient group of adults who have turned up week after week and often waited to sing between the spells of stage direction. Thanks to them all.

Thanks also to Norman and Andrew Stringer for help and support with sound, lighting and scenery manufacture. Also to Gill Smelt for scenery painting and design.

We are all looking forward to it all coming together, so:-

ON WITH THE SHOW.
